“ Harry came to B's Market each time during hunting season, sometimes the weather wasn't always good for this older gent to be driving that many miles. He would bring a friend and his beloved dog and park his camper in the field at Keizers or VanGenderens. One day as he was shopping at B's Market he wanted hot dog sauce, for the life of us we didn't know what that was, so we chalked that one up to a West Virginians way of covering up a hot dog! He was such a nice gentleman, never in much of a hurry as he was a great visitor. Sorry for your loss. Lyle and Jan Bruinsma

“ I will be forever grateful for the memories he gave us. All of my childhood Christmas' and family vacations were spent together growing up. I particularly hold close the years that he and my grandmother let me stay with them in WV. We camped,fished,cooked, road tripped, and sometimes we just watched Nashville now with a little ice cream. As a little girl I got to know the best parts of him. I will miss just knowing he's there, he always was. I will miss our short phone calls about the weather and politics. He will forever remain part of our families memories.

“ We enjoyed having Harry come to South Dakota for pheasant hunting. It was always one of the highlights of year. We loved seeing his dogs and how he spoiled them. He was part of the family and will be greatly missed at future pheasant hunts. Gods blessings to Harry's family. Valerie Bradwisch

“ Harry became part of my life over 50 years ago, when I married Mary Lees son, Eddie. I remember all of the camping and fishing trips. Wondering if we were gonna be able to get on or off the island. at Put in Bay. I remember spending so many Christmas s on the river. Most of all I remember how he cared for my family, and to Lisa and Jenny he will always be 'Poppaw Harry'.

“ My deepest sympathies to Harry's family. He was a terrific man with a beautiful southern drawl! I have many fond memories of going to his camper for coffee & a treat when he was out hunting at my family farm. We were amazed how he continued to come out and park in the pasture to hunt for as long as he did. There are many fond memories we have to cherish. I'm sure he's having a cup of coffee with dad, talking about the crops that he helped harvest when he came, the birds that may have been missed, and his 'gals' that made the trips with him. God bless his memory.
