“ I had the distinct honor of becoming acquainted and then friends with Casey through her love of flowers and then of pollinators(mainly Monarch Butterflies). Her love of God and nature were enviable by all means. She would call me and ask if I would come and remove some of the wayward milkweeds growing through her stepping stones. I always enjoyed her stories of travelling to Mexico to visit and minister with her family and watch the Monarch migration. Hugs and thoughts of love and comfort go out to Casey's beautiful family. Besides God, her family was her everything. Rest has now come to our friend and loved one, Casey.

“ I’m so sorry for your loss. Casey was a strong Christian & missionary woman of faith. She and her family were wonderful friends of mine and my grandparents, Tylers of Mill Creek. Casey, her mom and sisters would visit Ma & Pa Tyler frequently. My Granny delivered 2 of Casey’s sisters. My first bicycle came from Bicycle Bill’s shop on the West Side of Charleston. I met Casey 26 years ago at the South Charleston Community Pool. Casey brought her mother to my home in St. Albans for a visit with Ma Tyler’s daughter, my mother. We reminisced with pictures of the Currey family visiting at Mill Creek. We had many outings together and also with her Single Sassies group. Blessings to all the family. Hugs and prayers for peace and comfort. ❤️🙏
