“ Adeline, Emma and I remember you well - the giggles which were your laughter - the honest concern you had for others - the grace with which you served others . We are blessed for having known you and Jack. Our church responsibilities prevent us from being with you as you begin your journey in a new life in the presence of our Lord, our God

“ Your mom was a gracious and sweet lady. It was fun having her around for events that we went to at your house, particularly while our daughters were growing up. You took such good care of her. May your fond memories of her comfort you as you grieve.
