“ I had the privilege of working alongside Alice for many years, and she was truly the most genuine and kind-hearted person I have ever known. I remember the day she approached me about a raise. When I asked her how much she had in mind, she simply replied, "I don't know." I told her that once she decided, she could add it to her next paycheck. True to her nature, she did—choosing only a very modest amount. That was Alice: never one to take advantage and always thinking of others, especially her family.

As I keep her loved ones in my prayers here at home, I find solace in knowing that God has welcomed Alice into His eternal embrace. Her legacy of care, humility, and selflessness will live on in the hearts of everyone who knew her.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Anita and her family. I still have some of the purses your mom made for us. She loved to sew for us. I will miss her.
