

Alison Paige Flowers

August 23, 2020

Alison Paige Flowers, age 40, died suddenly early Sunday morning, August 23, 2020, at home in Dunbar, WV, of a heart attack. She was born to the late Edward “Ed” Gunter and Peggy Gunter.

Alison was the beloved wife of Adam Flowers and the mother of nine-year-old Delilah, who was the light of her life. In addition to her mother, Peggy, she is survived by her brother, Todd Gunter, of Charleston. Also grieving her loss are Adam’s parents, Russell and Kathy Flowers of St. Albans.

Alison was well-known and well-loved wherever she went. She spent three years working for the West Virginia Symphony Orchestra and made many friends there. She was a member of Unity of Kanawha Valley.

Alison was filled with light, compassion, and kindness. Her beautiful smile and her caring nature drew people to her. She was a person who made friends wherever she went, spreading happiness and laughter like wildflowers. She had her Dad’s keen sense of humor and her mother’s compassion. She possessed a fierce love of animals, sometimes to Adam’s chagrin, and their Dunbar home was a sanctuary for their dogs, Sophie and Rex, and their cats, Willie Nelson and Patsy Cline.

As you can probably tell by the cats’ names, Alison also had a fierce love of music, especially country and Americana. Some of her best moments were spent at the concerts provided by her favorite musicians. She also was a gifted singer and performed with several local bands. She was most at home on stage. Her creativity was also displayed in her art, which she enjoyed developing throughout her life.

In true Alison fashion, she was an organ donor. She will be cremated after bequeathing the ultimate gift to benefit others.

A memorial service will be at 11:00 am Saturday, September 5, 2020 at Coonskin Park Schoenbaum Amphitheater, Charleston.

In lieu of flowers, a GoFundMe account has been set up for Delilah's education. The link is: gf.me/u/yt2xtm

Bartlett-Nichols Funeral Home, family owned and located at 409 Sixth Ave, St Albans is honored to serve the Flowers family.

“ I am so heartbroken on the tragic passing of Alison Flowers. She was one of the most cheerful and loving people. When I first became Music Director of the Symphony, Alison always made me feel so welcome. I know she did the same for everyone in the symphony's circle. She had a warmth and a clear love for her family that was so obvious to me in my short time knowing her. I send my prayers and love and support to her family and friends during this difficult time. Rest In Peace, Alison.

“ Alison and I were in school together starting in elementary and although we didn't keep in touch after high school, she was one of those people that you could easily become friends with again or reminisce about when you were kids. I happened to see her behind a table in the lobby before a symphony performance and we both recognized each other right away. She came out and gave me a big hug and we probably talked too much considering she was working, but it was great catching up with her. I'm glad I was able to see her and how nice of a person she was one last time.

“ I only worked with Alison a short time but feel we were lifelong friends. I love her generosity and sincerity. Aside from those wonderful qualities she had a great sense of humor. I know she deeply loved her family and my prayers for comfort go out to them all.

“ *A year from now we'll all be gone
All our friends will move away
And they're going to better places
But our friends will be gone away*

*Nothing is as it has been
And I miss your face like Hell
And I guess it's just as well
But I miss your face like Hell*

*Been talking 'bout the way things change
And my family lives in a different state
And if you don't know what to make of this
Then we will not relate
So if you don't know what to make of this
Then we will not relate*
