

Angela Marie (McFarland) Born

June 11, 1973 - March 5, 2026

Angela Marie (McFarland) Born, 52, of Clendenin, unexpectedly went to be with her Lord and Savior on March 5th, 2026. She was born in South Charleston, WV on June 11th, 1973, the daughter of Bill and Cecilia McFarland (Loop Pharmacy). Angie grew up in St. Albans with her younger sister and brother riding bikes and playing along the Coal River.

From a young age, her strong personality and leadership gifting was evident in her participation in school organizations and clubs at Hayes Junior High and St. Albans High School where she made many lasting friendships.

After graduating from West Virginia Wesleyan in 1995, Angie moved to St. Louis, Missouri to pursue her masters degree in dietetics and where she made more life-long friends. It was in St. Louis, that Angie surrendered her life to Jesus and began a life-long journey of following Him.

After marrying her husband John in 2001, they began a family that was rooted in their shared faith. Always eager to welcome others into her home, Angie was known for her hospitality, home-cooked food, and ability to make people feel at ease and welcome.

In 2015 Angie's love of waterfalls, hills, and trails drew her back to West Virginia's country roads. At the call of the Lord, Angie and John began a strawberry farm with the specific purpose of impacting the community and blessing others by providing fresh produce for the Clendenin/Charleston area. Continuing her gift of hospitality, Ang also opened up a bed and breakfast on her property (Country Road House and Berries) where she served delicious breakfasts and hosted thousands of guests.

Beyond the duties of being a strawberry farmer, inn-keeper, and diligently working outside the home (Valley Vital Care), Angie was also a devoted wife, mother, daughter, and sister who greatly loved and valued the people around her. Angie was outgoing and full of fun, eager to make a friend wherever she went. She had a powerful ability to love and connect with others on a deep level which always led to rich and impactful conversations.

Angie enjoyed good food, dancing, walking the trails of West Virginia and rejoicing in God's good gifts of creation and provision in her life.

Angie always saw God's purposes in every moment of the day, with a unique ability to see God's good plans in even the most difficult situations. Her encouragement was life-giving, her enthusiasm was inspiring, her laugh was contagious, and her faith was so real. She lived in light of eternity, and those who knew her knew that she was daily led by her love for her Savior. She could often be heard saying- whether of her life or of her projects- "this is for the generations". She has indeed left a legacy of her deep love for the Lord and love for people, and she will be greatly missed.

Angela is survived by her spouse John Born of 24 years, her children Brooke Buente, JD, William, Samuel, Matthew, and Audree Born, her parents William and Cecilia McFarland (Jarrett), her siblings Cara Hoover (Patrick) and Keith McFarland (Laura Beth) and a multitude of nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, and other extended family and friends.

Visitation will take place from 11:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. with Funeral services following at 1:00 p.m. on Saturday, March 14, 2026 at Bible Center Church (Southridge Campus), 100 Bible Center Drive, Charleston with Pastor Jason McClanahan officiating. Burial will be family-only and will take place at a private cemetery.

In Lieu of flowers the family requests donations to Randolph Street Baptist Church, In Memory of Angela Born, 213 Randolph Street, Charleston, WV 25302.

“ Angie invited me into the family from the very beginning. We connected most over cooking and our love of Audree McFarland Renfro.

She has such a big heart and truly loves her family and Jesus. We will miss her!

Prayers and love to all of the family up in WV.

“ I was a friend of Angie's in high school, and it seems from everything I've read that she somehow maintained that kind, sweet, always smiling, bubbly personality she had in grade school, and her heart for others through her entire life. I'm comforted by knowing that she's home now with her Lord, but my heart breaks for the family and friends she's left behind. I went through the old yearbook and she's in tons of pictures and about half the clubs, but found a couple that I'll post. You will be missed, Angie.

“ My heart is broken for every member of Angela’s family. I am the Born family’s farm insurance agent, and Angela and I became quick friends when I first came to her home to write her policy as she was beginning her strawberry farm and Airbnb journey. What started as a business relationship quickly became a friendship.

We texted about work, but we also talked about our families and life. She was always a true joy to be around. One of the first things I noticed about Angela was the sense of peace I always felt when I was with her. She lived her faith openly, and her enthusiasm for life was contagious.

I will miss her deeply, but I know we will see her again one day. Love and prayers to John and the kids. 🙏❤️
