“ I met Deedee at the beginning of tenth grade. She was my closest friend for three years. I have so many good memories of that time. Then life got in the way. We seemed to be at odds about everything. There was never a day I didn't think about her, pray for her, and wish there was a way, or something I could do to be close to her like we were then.

I know we will meet again, but I still miss you Deedee. You are always in my thoughts and memories.

Love you Fancy,

Millie (your friend and sister in law)

You got that right . She could always make you smile . I'm so blessed to be able to call her my mom . Even if it was step she used to say there no step in there unless you are out of line then I'm stepping to whoop that butt of your 😂

I miss her too! I've picked the phone up a couple times to call her even while she was in the hospital and after she passed away. So I guess Athena's gonna have to be our Thanksgiving and Christmas cook!! (lol) But you can best believe there was never a dull moment when we got together. It didn't matter if it was just me and her or the whole gang and she loved it when she got to see everyone (but she could only take us all in small doses too lmao)

Tammy Burgess . She told me u wasn't her cousin. You was her sister . I just wish I could have seen her more . I know I didn't have a car . But I could have maybe paid someone to take me . Maybe but now u can't trust no one. Aunt Tammy I love you. I'm gonna miss mine and mom's call too . I didn't get to come up but we still keep in touch . I'm so glad that she was my mom . She was the best . There was nothing she couldn't do . Athena looks like you get to take her place in cooking. 😂. But like me and Athena said Aaron is the one that knew how to cook all her dishes to taste like mom's. So maybe Athena get Aaron to help 😂. Love you all
