“ As a young child, Jack and Ann Brown would come to my great grandmother's home on most Christmas eves. (Allene Neese) They we're a couple that emanated such joy and fun. The laughter that erupted as they visited with my family was such a blessing to be around. I specifically remember Ann's sweet voice and her authentic kindness. Many prayers and thoughts for her sweet family as they mourn such a lovely person. Sincerely, Miranda Brown (Ann Walker's granddaughter)

“ I can remember Ann from my early childhood days when Cindy and I were in Sunday School together. Then in later years my mother and Ann were good friends always talking and going to "Circle" together. Then my sons ended up taking care of their lawn every week so we would chat while they worked. Later when one had his first child Ann and Jack doted on Gracie. Always asking for pictures from Florida. When I heard she passed, I cried just like I did for my mother. They were the same kind hearted ladies and I will miss her so. Prayers to Jack and Cindy.
