“ I had the pleasure of knowing Anna Jane for over 60 years. She was always pleasant and a joy to know. Anna and my Belva were in the same nursing home, so I saw her each time I visited my wife. Even as a dementia patient, Anna always spoke to me and called me by name. God bless you, Huey, for being the loyal, devoted husband during a most difficult time.

“ I have lovely memories of Anna Jane from st Albans high school. She attended my wedding and we corresponded for awhile. But life got in the way and we drifted apart. I always was happy throughout the years to hear how she was and am very saddened by her passing. Condolences to Huey and her family.
