“ Atha had 3 children David, Linda and Brenda. I am Brenda. When our dad died, he asked me to take care of mom. I did. I made sure she had a home, a vehicle and she lived with me for awhile and never with anyone else. Our family was torn apart by a family member several years ago. Because of his actions, we could never be a family again. Mom could never be with all of her family at Christmas or birthdays after his disgusting actions. I can not be at moms funeral because of him. My family’s pictures were all but omitted in her viewing Mom knows about you. And mom knows I love her dearly. That’s all that matters.

“ Atha was always so kind and loving. She and my aunt Evelyn were friends and loved singing and talking together. We always would laugh and she would sing when I would go to see her. Your mother was a very special lady. May Gods blessing and peace be with you. Love you all Sheila

“ I did not live close enough to see my aunt Atha often, but my father loved her so very much and spoke of her so warmly that I formed a definite image of the kind, sweet woman I grew to love. I saw that “Pistore spunk” which would come out in a tease or joke when you least expected it! I know dad joyously greeted her at Heaven’s gates. I’ll miss them both.
