“ My prayers go out to the family that they will find comfort in their memories of such a kind, caring, happy individual. “I feel privileged to have known Barbara. We have worked together on many occasions, and traveled together to out of town workshops and trainings. Barbara was always upbeat and had a smile on her face each time I saw her, in the school, in workshops, or just out and about. She was fun to spend time with and I always enjoyed seeing her when I visited the school. She brightened my day on many occasions.”

“ I loved working with Barbara. She was always helpful with any project and shared her knowledge when asked. She also taught me to make challah bread—fun days!

“ With a very sad heart I want to say how sorry I am for the loss of Barbara. She was kind and always had a smile, with a hello, when she would see me. She will be missed. I won't be in town for her funeral but I will always remember her just the way she was.

“ Barb was my neighbor and my friend. We shared a love of animals and challah bread. She baked it and I ate it! Every year at Christmas she would bake beautiful loaves of bread and deliver them door to door. We shared the same mission to help all the unwanted kitty cats in our neighborhood who wandered around looking for care and shelter. She had a generous loving heart that was full of compassion. She never met a stranger and was the type of person who you felt comfortable around immediately. She was kind, intelligent, and dependable. I had the honor of caring for her precious "Little Bit" and then later "Tia" when she would go on her much anticipated Amish trips with her dear friends. She loved those trips more than anything. She would always come back and tell me every detail of what she did and what she ate, where she shopped....so animated and joyful that when I left I felt like I had gone on the trip right along with her. I know that Barb is in heaven.....never to spend another lonely night or to suffer pain. She is ringing the bells for her Lord and Savior now.....and He is tapping His foot and clapping His hands in joy because another child has come home. I am so blessed and grateful to have known Barb....she touched my life and I will think of her and miss her everyday. I am so blessed and grateful to have known her. Much love and prayers to her family.....Judy Lewis
