“Kristina and family, I was sorry to learn the passing of your Mother, Grandmother. Barbara was a jewel, a quiet sort of lady with much wisdom when I had the pleasure of being in her midst. Back in the day when your father Arnold was with us, I got to not only work alongside your Dad, but community events, Forest Service dinners, etc. I got to experience your Mom to some extent. Your Dad often lovingly spoke of you, as did your Mom. I shall miss the both of them. My condolences.

“I remember when Barbara lived in the big white house at the corner of Guy and Boundary. It is a short distance from the Forest Service building and her husband Arnold would go home from work every day for lunch. He always had something good to say about Barbara. Both Arnold and Barbara had paintings to show at the annual Forest Festival exhibits in the YMCA. Beautiful scenes of flowers, the forest, fish and wildlife. I remember one story Arnold told of the pet bunny that had run of the house. He (or she) accidentally chewed on one of the frames of a painting and got a splinter got in its throat. Also, Barbara told of the time Arnold persuaded a wild fox to come to him in the back yard and was close enough to be petted. Such warm stories of both your parents, Kristine. Arnold talked a lot about you too. May God bless you during this time of loss and may you remember all the good stories of both parents. Wini (Bosworth) Fink, retired Forest Service employee

“ Kristy and family, I remember the beautiful paintings that your Mom and Dad entered in the Forest Festival art show every year. My mom enjoyed being in the Seneca Trail Artists' Guild with them. Your mother had a long and accomplished life. May she Rest In Peace.
