“ We could of never in a million years found a way to thank you for you just being you. You were there when no one else was, just because you truly believed in what family meant, you honestly believed in every form of the word family. A diamond in the rough. An absolute gem. You never took no BS from anyone, you were never afraid or ashamed to say exactly what you felt and what you felt was right. You were there for our children, passed and present. You would always remind us of our inner strength and remind us we was never alone. You always stood up for what you believed. You weren't scared to bend or brake the rules. Possibly mold new rules to where they needed to be. An extraordinary artist and human being. We were blessed to have you in our lives and we will carry you forever within our souls. You were an angel amongst us in disguise as a human. Whenever we see a 🦋, we will know you are just letting us know you are still here. Please let everyone that we have lost and love know we will see them again. We miss you dearly and life will never seem the same without your physical presence here. We love you.
With all our love,
Missy and Alvin
