

Betty Lee Berry

April 8, 1933 - April 20, 2025

Betty Lee Berry, 92, of Charleston West Virginia, passed away on Sunday, April 20, 2025, after a year of declining health.

She was born in Reed, WV to the late Russell and Ethel Barton. She was a long-time member of Ruffner Memorial Presbyterian Church, baptized there in 1955 - together with their infant son. She was a graduate of Dupont High School and retired from West Virginia State Government.

Preceded in death by her husband of 64 years, Gale Berry; son, David Berry; great granddaughter, Zoey Burzynski; and siblings, Russell (Jimmy) Barton, Bonnie Bess, Nancy Gibson Perdue, and William Barton.

Betty is survived by her daughters, Cynthia Berry and Jill Berry Chapman (Roger); daughter-in-law, Lisa Berry; grandchildren, Jesse Berry, Rachel Berry Burzynski (Kyle), Meredith Chapman Capito (Joe); and great granddaughters, Audrey and Bethany Berry, Summer Burzynski, and Violet and Bridget Capito.

As she requested, there will be no formal service. Betty will be laid to rest alongside of Gale at Cunningham Memorial Park, St. Albans, WV.

You may visit Betty's tribute page at BartlettNichols.com to share memories or condolences with the family.

Bartlett-Nichols Funeral Home, family owned and located at 409 Sixth Avenue, St. Albans is honored to serve the Berry family.

Cemetery Details

Cunningham Memorial Park

815 Cunningham Lane
St. Albans, WV 25177

Tribute Wall

BB

“ So very sorry to hear about Betty’s passing. She was a beautiful person and so caring and helpful to my mother at the Ridgemont. Mom always said that “Betty Berry was her best friend.” Sending her family lots of hugs and prayers for peace and comfort!

Brenda Bradley - April 26, 2025 at 08:22 AM

SN

Betty was sweet, kind, and funny. She made me laugh & I enjoyed listening to her memories about her life, family, and friends. She is forever etched in my heart & it was a joy knowing her. Sharon E. Newsome, Edgewood Summit

Sharon Newsome - May 16, 2025 at 02:15 PM

TB

“ I am so sorry to learn of Betty's passing. I received a lovely card from her at Christmas and I had hoped I might be able to visit with her this summer. Since Bill passed away I have not traveled much but I am retiring soon and was hoping to spend more time re-connecting with family. I regret that I waited too long. My sincere condolences to all of her loved ones. God Bless you all. Terri Barton

Terri Barton - April 24, 2025 at 01:08 PM

Jl

“ 7 files added to the album Tribute

Jill - April 22, 2025 at 04:14 PM

Jl

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Jill - April 22, 2025 at 02:09 PM