“ I remember meeting Mr Adkins a few years back when his wonderful daughter Sandy brought me with her when she went to him for a visit. He was such the ladies man! They were having a musical event and dinner in the common area of his group living home and he was happily surrounded by all the ladies 😊. His kind words of greeting me as a if I were a long time friend gave me a warm feeling of welcome. Few folk are able to pull those they've just met in this way-it's a gift. I will always remember that day with a smile Love and condolences to Sandy and the family
