“ I remember Bonnie as a woman who very much loved the Lord and loved sharing His love with children in after school Bible clubs. How many of her "children" will be in Heaven because of her love of Jesus and for them? My children grew up with hers in their early years at Bethlehem Church. How joyous that she is now with Jesus and we have the hope of seeing her once again in Heaven. Jayne Alles

“ I have only good memories of my oldest sister, Bonnie. She was loving and kind, selfless and giving. She spent her life in ministry and in helping others - as a nurse and as a Christian leader who taught many children’s Good News Clubs, led her church’s women’s ministry, and did countless other deeds of service. She loved music and sang beautifully. Every time I hear “Oh, Holy Night,” I remember Bonnie singing it as a solo in our church Christmas program when she was in high school. She loved opera and often would sing various arias as she worked around the house. When she received her first paycheck, she went out that same day and spent it all on gifts for all of us in her family. I still have what she got me. She was an avid reader, and we both often liked the same books and authors. I like to picture Bonnie in heaven seeing the Lord Jesus whom she loved and served for so many years and seeing our parents who went before her. There are no lasting goodbyes for Christians, so, “I love you, Bonnie, and I will see you later.”
