“ My dearest uncle... I can't believe you are gone but I know without a shadow of a doubt that you are with Jesus, parents and little sister. I remember all the times you took me to your church and how you always made me feel like part of your family as well as the church members treated me. I love you and I hope I see you again someday..

“ Carl was such a light to KCS Maintenance. He would always share a smile. We will miss seeing him every day...he would come in the office to just say good morning and get his cup of coffee. Until we meet again!
