“ Jackie, so many wonderful memories of our friendship. From sitting in the sun to get our summer tan to shoveling our driveway we shared in Ohio as next door neighbors. We laughed and cried together and even acted like 2 little kids sometimes. "The Good Ole Days!" You are now walking the streets of "GOLD" with our Heavenly Father! You have joined all of your loved ones, especially your "Ronnie!" I will miss our phone calls that we had. And most of all, your beautiful voice. You were always such a giving person and a very hard worker keeping up with things around your house! Rest now my "BEST FRIEND" and know that I have always loved you like a sister! Until we meet again...Sue Monfort...🙏❤️🌹
