“ The Lewis home was always filled with laughter. I used to hang there in high school and after sometimes to dance and create pom routines with those crazy Lewis girls (all my friends) and their even crazier fun loving, always laughing mom (Mrs. Lewis). Sometimes she would dance right in with us, never missing a beat and always taking the time to “giggle” it up with we girls. Her light heart, Virginia accent, happy glow and love for life were precious andwell we could all learn to be like that. Mrs. Lewis, you are loved and you will be missed. May you rest in the peace of the Lord. 🌺💕🍷

“ Sue and I were fast friends the day we met! I remember the first Reunion I attended, she grabbed my arm in hers and introduced me to everyone there! (which took awhile 🤔) I am happy to say that Alex is my son-in-law and is loved by our family! He loved his mom and aunt Sue dearly. I remember going in to visit Lucy one day, seeing her crippled up in her bed but with a smile on her face and an alert mind. I said “Lucy you’re the strongest person I know,” she replied ...“ no Claudia, Sue is!” They sure loved each other. Happy thoughts for my daughter Sarah who loved Sue. Sarah is a nurse and helped them both out with their medical things. Calvin and Carter were very close with Aunt Sue and loved her. Their favorite memory would be when Sue would get a prank call or a telemarketer calling her, she always kept a whistle by her phone and she’d blast them in the ear with that thing 🗣️ (and then give them a few choice words to go with it 😏). Sue, I know you are in heaven with your loved ones 🙏❤️ Claudia McDonald
