“Fly high my angel, Aunt Charlene. You are part of all my childhood, and adult memories. You were the most intelligent, wise and loving people and I have admired you since I was a child. You were a great role model for little girls born in the 50's when you were breaking glass ceilings for us. Though I live far away from home, home has been you and the rest of my family. I will always love and always miss you.

“I remember how gracious and welcoming your mother was when we DZ's invaded your house while in college and at your baby shower. I know recent events have been hard to cope with but you are so lucky to have had such a wonderful mother with for so many years. Wishing you God's love and comfort at this trying time.

Thank you so much Marsha. What a lovely memory. I'm so happy you shared it. That was such a happy time and she loved my sisters. I know how lucky I've been to have mom with me. What a gift. Keep us in your prayers.

“ I will miss you Aunt Charlene! The light got a little dimmer with your passing. Every time I see you, you look like a female version of my Dad. I will greatly miss you. You are a one-of-a-kind!
