“ I was deeply saddened to learn of Charlie's passing. He & Phyllis stood up with my husband Bill & I at our wedding on Christmas Eve, 1965. Phyllis, my classmate, work partner, Maid of Honor, and very dear friend, I am praying for you & your family; that God will give you comfort, peace, and strength now and in the days, weeks, months & years to come! You will find, I know, sweet, sweet memories of your precious Charlie. Hold onto those to get you through!!! Love you!

“ Phyllis and Charlie have attended all of Phyllis's (and my) class reunions. That is where I met Charlie. I'm sure Charlie felt quite at home with this crowd, and we felt a warm relationship with him. He was an interesting conversationalist, and I always tried to find time to converse with him. We had several areas of mutual interest, which now will be further unexplored. He was always warm and friendly. I will surely miss Charlie.

Phyllis and I go all the way back to first grade and we always share hugs when together, which we will continue to do. This is so close to another of our classmate get-togethers.

I'm sure we will express our sympathies then as we do now.

Phyllis, I'm so sorry. This is a huge loss and, I'm sure, such a terrible sorrow for many.

“ Dear Phyllis
May God comfort you and your girls. Charlie was truly one of a kind. All of us light up a room, some when they enter, others when they leave. When Charlie entered the room the party started. He genuinely made the world a better place. He was such a blessing in so many ways. He left us an example to follow and he will not be forgotten. We will see him again on that great reunion day.

“ One of the best friends I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. One of the wittiest people I have ever known. Our hearts are broken, but we have the promise of seeing him again by the Grace of God. To be absent from the body is to be present with our Lord. He fought a good fight and was ready to meet his Savior. Phyllis and family our hearts are broken, but he will be waiting for us on the other side. We love you and your family.
