“ As a child, I fondly recall visiting my cousins when they lived on Falls Creek, near the Bowman-Lipscomb cemetery. There lies Geneva Lipscomb, our grandmother who died in 1930 of the very same type of gastrointestinal condition that took Charlie and my little sister, Peggy.

Franklin, Rudy, Ginny and Charlie have all since left their Earthly bonds, leaving us all to hold onto their memory.

Each day is a gift. Treasure each and every moment.
