“ Rest In Peace my dear, sweet friend and teacher. You were one of the few bright spots in one awkward and sad little girls high school years. You taught us social studies but so, so much more. I saw the love of Christ shine through you in a time when I wasn't sure that He was there. I will always be grateful for your kindness as a teacher, and later when we reconnected, as a friend. I shall miss your kind, encouraging, and always uplifting words. Rest easy now sister and I look forward to the day when we meet again in the Clearing at the end of the path.

“ "Miss Annie" was my Government teacher at Fayetteville High School. She was such a sweet and interactive teacher. We were blessed to have her in our young lives. Sorry to admit, but sometimes if we weren't in the mood to study, we'd bring up JFK & Miss Annie would talk the rest of the class period about him. We absolutely loved her.
