“ I so enjoyed getting acquainted with and knowing my cousin Clara Edwards. Her mom and my dad were brother and sister. I've always known of her; but never had the privilege of getting to stand face to face, give her a hug, and discuss our love for each other as part of the Cumberledge family. I was so thankful for all of her memories of our Grandma Cumberledge as I and my sisters had very few. I so enjoyed it when she would call me and we would talk family and church. She always sounded so youthful though I knew she was so full of physical pain. She loved the Lord. She was beautiful (as her picture shows) through and through. Thanks for your phone calls, Clara!

Your cousin Lora Cumberledge Saunders
