“ Where do I begin to tell the Story of a special childhood friend? Many of us boys and girls grew up in the area known as Lock 7. It was one of those neighborhoods where parents watched over everyone else's children as well as their own. Imma and Claude Childers were just one set of parents who did this. Eddie had this garage on his parents property that became our Club house up in the attic! Eddie collected Marbles like most of us boys did. We all played in the Church parking lot while we grew up. Eddie and I stayed in contact often through the years. He was the most laid back person that I ever knew. You are loved and missed my dear friend...Untill we meet once again in Heaven...RIP my friend ❤️👍🥰
