“Missing you every day. We never got to meet in person but all the games we played together will live forever in my heart. The group misses you, and I got a tattoo for you once I learned of your passing. You had so much energy and always made me laugh. I miss getting your calls, and how mad you’d be if I didn’t pick up. I’ll have to celebrate our birthday alone for the years to come, but I know you’ll always be with me, my forever birthday twin. ❤️👍

“Holy shit, I played games with him all the time. Me and him got into an argument in october and we blocked each other and stopped talking. I’ve been texting him every now and then and he hasn’t been responding. I look up his name and he’s gone. Thanks for the love you shown me even if we only knew each other through a screen ❤️❤️

“ Colton and I were really close, we would talk almost every day! We used to hang out when we were little and continued to hang out as we grew up! Colton once came to my house and I talked him into letting me flat iron his hair and he wasn't very happy with it!! Colton was such a sweet boy and never said anything mean to me, he would always make sure I was okay when i was having a rough time. I'm going to miss him so much. #LLC ❤️
