“ we served together& she would float around the restaurant like a butterfly. she truly enjoyed talking to and helping people. there wasnt a soul she couldnt connect with. creatitvity absolutley poured out of that girl!! whether it was makeup and hair, tattoo, poem or art she made EVERYTHING beautiful. she was a walking canvas. i was always envious of her talent! she had a way of becoming anyone she wanted to be and even wild looks suited her well! she was the coolest chick ive ever met! i will always admire that boldness. she was smart, sweet and she was as real as they come. i was lucky to have known her i just cant wrap my head around her passing, she is definately woven into my heart and it aches without her.

“ Pam and Sam,

We were so sorry to hear of Courtney's passing. Losing a child is an incredibly difficult path to walk but one that in time you will be able to navigate. While we didn't know Courtney we do know that you both loved and cared for her deeply. Our hope is that you can rely on your happy memories and the love you feel for her as you continue move forward. Please know that you are all in our prayers.

Love

Beverly and John
