“ I only knew David as a youth. He and his family were neighbors. It saddens my heart to learn of his passing. It was too soon. I knew David would grow to be a good man, husband and father. There is no finer measure or tribute.

“ My husband was a great man, he worked very hard and always made sure that every job was to the customers liking and did his best on every job. He enjoyed his work and his family. He was always thinking of everyone else. I'm missing him so much and I'm trying to stay strong. I Love him so very much and I wish he was with me. I'll always keep him in my heart forever and I can't wait til the day we meet again. Love You always David ❤️🥺❤️
