“ Dear Alan,
I'm sorry I was unable to attend the services for Debbie. Debbie was a wonderful person, caring person who was taken too soon. We had some really good times back in the day! I will always remember what good dancers the two of you were together. I know the coming days will be difficult for you and the family because Debbie was such a loving, vibrant head of the family. My thoughts and prayers are with you and the family as travel this road.
