“ Donneti was one of the nicest women i have ever known. She was sweet and charming when I first met her after Cousin Bob married and brought her into the Johnson family. She was always the same through the years, and I loved talking to her. So sorry for your loss and may her memory be a blessing. RIP precious cousin. Love, Edna

My heart is with my beautiful family in West Virginia. I know your hearts are hurting, and I'm praying for each and every one of you.

My precious Aunt Donetta, or Aunt Dodie as I called her, was an absolute gift. Funny, loving, thoughtful, and so good to me. Who would think that only having physically been together just a handful of times, the love between an aunt and niece could be so strong? But it can, and it was. When we talked, it was as if we hadn't been apart—this is a Harper thing. Long distance calls between California and West Virginia never seemed that long. We are so blessed to come from such a beautiful and strong family. Distance or miles didn't matter. Over the years, she and Uncle Bob have been constant encouragers and a loving support to me.

I'll always remember the precious way she'd wake me up on those summer mornings, asking, "How did you sleep? Are you hungry, Sugar?" with her soft southern drawl. I can still hear it. I always felt like I was at a restaurant; whatever I wanted, she was willing and ready to make for me.

I can't count the number of delicious egg sandwiches she'd make for me, which are still a go-to for me to this day. She'd always stop everything just to sit and talk with me while I ate. Or the time she tried to convince me to spend my senior year of high school out there. She almost had me!

She had a wonderful sass and spunkiness, like all Harper women do. She always showed it in the most kind, loving, and funny way possible. I'm so grateful that Dad made it a point to send me to his home because Dad knew family is everything. He and my Mom wanted me to know and connect with his family and where he came from.

Over the years, I always knew I could call at any time and hear, "Hey Sugar" or "Hey sweetheart, how are you?" It was always comforting.

This is hard, real hard. My heart is with you all, especially Uncle Bob and my cousins. I love you, and I loved your beautiful Mama. God bless you all, may He continue to hold each and every one of you.

Cling to your memories and cling to Jesus. This isn't goodbye, it's "we will see you again." I'm so grateful for the promise of heaven.
