“ I remember Ed as a wonderful neighbor and a caring father. He was a strong man who always smiled when he passed by. we shared a love of motorcycles and his, unlike mine, was always spotless. His daughter, Elizabeth, was my younger sisters best friend in school. Her positive smile and kindness reflected her parents guidance. His grandson Terry also has that smile and kindness that makes your day brighter. I thank God for Ed's influence on his family and the neighborhood.
