“ I am so very sorry to hear of Ed's passing. Fine fine man, I loved going to see him and Mary at the "boat store" Wow. What a place!!! I enjoyed for many years. Ed always had what you needed and or wanted. If not, he got it for you. It was a big loss for him with Mary gone. Now they are together again. Rest in peace my ole friend. My heart and love go out to all the family and friends of this good man. Rick & Debby Turley. Pinch, WV

So sad to hear of Ed's passing. Ed always introduced me as his first customer at WV Marine. He always made me feel special . Ed and Mary never knew a stranger. They both were loved and admired by everyone in the boating community. My favorite story about Ed was when we were out and a bunch of young guys were getting ready to hustle him in pool, I was so mad. Mary just winked and said it's alright just sit back and watch...,well needless to sat Ed hustled the hustlers, he cleared the whole table before they laid their money down...loved it. I pass by WV Marine everyday and it won't be the same now. He surely will be missed :(
