“ Dictated by Marty Scharf, friend for decades.

She was the first person I talked to after I accepted Christ as my Messiah. She was excited and so encouraging. I really enjoyed working with her at Met Life. Jim and Eloise made a lovely couple.

“ I knew Eloise from Bible Center Church as I was growing up. She was so kind to me and always had a smile. She also had a connection with my grandparents, Keith and Grace Long Angle.

She and Jim were very generous (and perhaps a bit brave with us teens)--as I recall several youth group outings they hosted on their boat. So much fun was had and so many memories were created with my friends as we trolled along the Kanawha and Elk rivers. Thankful for those times.

Later, I would occasionally get to see her when our hair appointments with Diana Chapman were adjacent to each other. It was always good catching up with her.

She will be missed. My prayers for your family.

“ Mom and I visited Eloise a few days before this past Christmas. We are so thankful we got to spend a few minutes with her. She was smiling, even sharing her sweet little laugh. We are grateful for the friendship we shared with Eloise and Jim. We surely will miss her, but look forward with hope when we're reunited in heaven.
