“ Jess, Forest, Gretchen and family,

Frieda was my friend, my encourager, my role-model. I watched her deal with difficult problems, always with a smile. She was a warrior. She did not accept compliments well, but she deserved many more compliments/accolades than she ever received.

I shall miss her letters and voice.

It was my privilege to know her.

“Frieda Hall was one of the finest Christian women I have ever known. She was a wife, mother, and grandmother who loved nothing better than supporting her children and grandchildren by being present at any event or game where they were. She always put her faith into action and left a lasting imprint on my life.
