“ Doris & family, so sorry for your loss & extend my deepest condolences to all. Losing a loved one is a tough thing to deal with, but one can find some comfort in knowing their loved one is at peace & not suffering any longer with their illnesses & enjoying their new Heavenly home & you can look forward to that great reunion some day in Heaven. 🙏❤️

“ Gary was a very nice person. He always treated me like family when I was a kid growing up with his own. He was a true outdoorsman and taught me to better appreciate nature. I still remember him shooting his bow and drinking his TAB. Loved it when he would take me and Chris out to fish in his canoe or set us up on the river bank with his homemade trademark pole holders. He always took the time. I will always remember him.
