“ I'm in shock to read about Gaye's death. The Class of 1967 mourns with you. Gaye and I became friends when we attended Wharton Grade School. In Junior High we went to BYF together at Wharton Missionary Baptist Church. The pastor's daughter was also our teacher at Wharton Junior High School. Miss Moyer took Gaye and I on a trip during the summer. We visited Jamestown, Williamsburg, and Washington, D.C. I will never forget what a wonderful time we had. My thoughts and prayers are with all of the family. May you find comfort in all of the wonderful memories you shared with Gaye.

I hate to hear of Gaye's passing.. we found each other through ancestry research.. my great grandmother was a Cochran .. her brother was Elias Cochran , who settled in the Wharton area... my grandfather was E.M. Kuhn and his sister Carrie married into Gaye's family through the White family so we were connected doubly... my sister and Gaye shared quite a resemblance to one another... condolences to all her family and friends...
