April 19, 1941 - April 30, 2024

George Abdo Chaber, of St. Albans, West Virginia, beloved father, grandfather, and great grandfather passed away peacefully on Tuesday, April 30, 2024.

He cherished every moment spent with his loved ones and leaves a legacy of love, kindness, and laughter. He will be deeply missed by all who know him.

Surviving family members include his sisters Adele Mityas of Smyrna, Georgia and Rhoda Mitias (Spiro Mitias) of Alum Creek, West Virginia, his brothers Dimitri Chaber (Mary Chaber) of St. Albans, West Virginia, Sami Chaber (Rola Chaber) of Hurricane, West Virginia, and Nicholas Chaber of Alum Creek, West Virginia, his sons Christian Chaber (Lisa Chaber) of Brookefield, Connecticut and Richard George Chaber (Maryann Chaber) of Kissimmee, Florida. Surviving grandchildren include Christian Baily Chaber of St. Albans, West Virginia, Jordan Habib Chaber of St. Albans, West Virginia, Zachary Chaber of Orlando, Florida, and Kristina Petry (Nathan Petry) of St. Albans, West Virginia. Surviving great-grandchildren include Kane Zachary Chaber of Orlando, Florida and Jaxon Petry of St. Albans, West Virginia, and countless cousins, nieces, and nephews.

“ My Father was more than a Dad, he was a role model. He taught me that family and love is all that matters in this life. He taught me how to be humble and thankful. He taught me how to be a good man, worthy of respect not from success, but for my word, and how to value people. He proved that we can overcome any obstacles, and that with God, anything is absolutely possible! He watched me hit my first home run, and COUNTLESS other home runs after. He taught me how to pray 🙏 when I had my first nightmare, and that was my first real experience with the power of God. To this day, I still pray after a nightmare, just as my father taught me, and will do so until it's my time to join him. Truly knowing God, my Heavenly Father, is what makes this extremely difficult time that much easier, because I know where my Dad is right now. "No more pain, nor death, or crying." Instead, he was with his beloved Brother and his parents. With that, I want to thank my Heavenly Father, God Almighty 🙏 for blessing me with 50 years with the most loving, funny, cool, strong, kind-hearted, warm, generous, and most perfect Dad a son could ask for. We absolutely love you Dad. For always and forever, unto ages of ages, Amen 🙏 Your memory IS eternal! Thank you for teaching me how to be a good man, and to love like there is no tomorrow. I know we will see you again. Love you!
