“ I nothing but fond memories of Glenn. I have many stories about him like the day I met him as a young boy. A couple friends and I were in my front yard throwing Darts at a dart board on a tree maybe 10 feet away when Glenn who we didn't know came along and sat on the fence a few feet away. He had a peanut butter sandwich in his hand and as he took a bite I throw a dart and it hit something and flew through the air and stuck him right in the leg very near his groin! I will never forget the look on his face with the sandwich in his mouth and the pain on his face! It took awhile before he came back! The other thing I will never forget ie when he Pinched the tip of his finger off messing with the scooter he had when we were racing. I was the one who took him home screaming and I was asked to go back and find the finger tip! And in the dark with a flashlight and Ice tray I found it! Sorry to say it couldn't be put back on. Lots of memories of my unlucky friend! Rest In Piece Glenn.
