“ My heart is broken, we always were going to go to see him but something always seemed to get in the way. It's too late now, so don't make the same mistake go see your loved ones while you can!!

Greg was more than my Cousin, he was my Brother! We were always together at school, band events, family gatherings and after we were grown. Our families were very close and Greg was a Special and Unique individual, we got each other and my husband understood him too. Greg and Sandy would always have a good time when they were together. When he met Barb, she was the one that fit with him. They were the perfect couple, he loved his daughter and granddaughter to the moon and back! Fly high my dear dear cousin as I will never forget you and I'm glad all your pain and suffering is gone!!! I Love You, Beth
