“ I met Harriet thru a dear friend when I needed someone to stay at my house to care for my ailing kitty. She stayed with my cat several times after that, and I never doubted that she was well cared for if Harriet was with her. Harriet was a dear person with a heart of gold.

“ Harriet was a genuine true friend to me. Always there for me when I needed her. Very patiently taught me to knit, cooked beside me at church, loaned many of us her James Patterson books before she even read them, generous to anyone in need.

So much fun to spend time with.

I dearly loved her.

I already miss her.

“ Harriet was a dear long time friend. We met our first year of nursing school & our friendship has continued all through the years. She was part of our family & Aunt Harriet to my children & later to my fur ball family❤️
She knew Josh & Leah from the day they were born & always attended birthdays, graduations & any other family gathering when she could.
I loved her very much & truly feel her absence in my life. It seems very difficult to imagine my life without her involved. She was always there for me when I needed her. Rest easy now dear Harriet❤️
All my love & condolences to the family
