“ I will remember Hughes as a kind, intelligent man. He was a supportive father and a wonderful husband to his wife, Carolyn. He followed his faith in his own way and manner. What better tribute to a person could there be for a person? God Bless.

“ Sending sincere condolences to the Booher family and a celebration of his life is certainly in order. Hughes and Jed Dial are a couple of my best memories of that era at Marshall. The last time I saw Hughes was at Middy Mifkiff's service and it was as if we had seen each other a month or so ago. What a class guy Hughes was and I'll always count it as a blessing to have known and associated with him. Prayers for the family. Phi Alpha.

Sincerely,

Joe Kessler
