“ Jim was my best friend. Our friendship lasted 50 years. We met in the 8th grade at Hayes Jr High and became great friends. Jim had a great sense of humor and talked like a southern charmer. I will always remember him saying "Well Hello Darlin" to all the good-looking girls he'd see. We hung out all through high school and ended up going into the Air Force around the same time. We got together many times throughout the years and remained best friends. I was temporarily staying with him in an apartment in Lexington KY when he decided to move back to St Albans. He was kind of regretting it, but it ended up being the best thing ever because he reconnected with Kitty and the rest was history. She was truly the love of his life and he was the happiest I've ever seen him. He was always there for me when I needed someone to talk to and prayed for me when I needed it. I loved him like a brother and will miss him deep in my heart.

*Love you brother,
Barry Martin*

“ I was a neighbor of Kitty and Jim’s. Before I moved back home they looked out for my Mother and loved her. When I moved in with my mother they were still kind to her and myself. Best neighbors you could asked for. Many times after my Mother passed, they would bring me stew or something they cooked. Jim had a great sense of humor. He loved his wife dearly. They loved watching football. Big WVU fans. There would be a sign on their door that read “It’s football, not domestic violence!” A few great memories are letting off Fireworks in the alley behind our apartments. God bless. Rest in Heaven, Jim was a wonderful man.
