I worked with Jim at Amos Plant. In fact, I interviewed and tested Jim. He was a very nice person and everyone liked him. I haven't had the opportunity to speak with him in years but anytime I thought of him, it put a smile on my face. God Bless and send comfort to his family.

“ I remember the nights getting woke up from Jimmy, Linda, Mary Ann and Bobby Joe screaming about someone cheating at rook. And Linda was the only one around the kitchen table that could calm the bunch down. It was always so fun when I visited their house. They will be greatly missed.
