“ I am so very grateful to have met and become friends with Jim, and also Cora before her passing. I met Jim as I was searching for information about a dear friend of Jim's with whom he served in Korea. Jim was able to fill in many gaps for me about his buddy who was killed in Korea and happened to have been married to my mother. I considered Jim a tremendous blessing to me, and he was able to give me many details I had longed to know all of my life. My husband and I enjoyed a few visits and numerous phone calls over the past few years, and considered Jim a dear friend, and I will forever treasure those times.
