“ Jim was a wonderful friend and Precept student. He was in love with the Word of God and was an extremely intelligent mentor and student in many areas. I have no doubt he is with the Lord and probably discussing things with Paul! We love and miss you, Jim. It will not be the same without you. We will see you soon my brother in Christ.

“ Hello Connie, I am very sorry that Jimmie pass away. I lived next door to him and Tommy on Bridge St. in Charleston West Side. Could you tell me about Tommy? We would play in the street almost all day. Softball and football. They was both good friends of mine. I now live in Dublin, Ohio. Richard Starr- rsterr1976@aol.com

I knew Jim at Stonewall Jackson H S and he was a smart, no brilliant guy. He was just a casual friend but so nice and impossible to forget. Thoughts and prayers are with his family.
