Following her service in Kenya, she joined the faculty of the West Virginia University School of Nursing where she served until 1996, retiring as an Associate Professor. Jane has enjoyed her home on Cheat Lake, visiting with friends, and painting West Virginia landscapes in watercolor, her favorite medium. Most satisfying was her involvement with God's Miracle, Chestnut Ridge Church. “ Pastor Daniel Mwinzi - Chairman of the board Bethel Bible and Technical School and Pastor at Independent Presbyterian Church in Kitui Kenya

Jane was a loving and committed servant of our Lord and savior Jesus Christ. She loved the people of Kenya and we loved her back.

Due to Jane's support I sank a water well from which I am able to irrigate crops and use clean water for domestic purposes.

I have been able to set up a poultry project which helps to supplement my income and therefore I have been able to pay school fees for my children and also meet basic needs.

May Jane Rest in Peace with Christ till we meet again, AMEN!

My heart has been attached to her since we met, she loved Kenya and the people and her financial support has enabled me to meet my family's basic needs.

“ Reverend James Mwangangi - Moderator Independent Presbyterian Church in Kitui Kenya and Principal Bethel Bible and Technical School

Jane has been a role model to me, she encouraged me and she was dedicated to Christ. In 2019 she sent financial support when my wife was undergoing surgery and I used that money in settling the hospital bill and that really saved my wife.

I have used her support to pay school fees for my children in the university and lower colleges. I will remember her work in the Clinics of Care, in Bethel Bible and Technical Schools and in my family as a memorial to her.

May Jane Rest in Peace with Christ till we meet again, AMEN!

“ Wambua Philip Ngonde - Independent Presbyterian Church in Kitui Kenya, General Manager Treasury and Financial Institutions at African Banking Corporation Nairobi Kenya - I have known Jane Shrewsbury from the mid nineteen nineties when she came to visit the Clinics of Care Ministries under the leadership of our missionaries Mr. and Mrs. Garry Johnson and the local management committee of the clinic.

At that time I was the secretary of the Clinics of Care Ministry and working very closely with other Pastors of the Independent Presbyterian Church in Kitui Kenya.

Ms. Shrewsbury had funded the building of the clinic and a missionary's house at a cost of USD 7,500 and she took time to see the patients together with Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Proctor.

I have known Jane to be a devoted, loving and caring lady. She loved the local people and she was very interested to know in details how they lived their day to day lives and also how they met their day to day financial needs.

Jane developed very close friendship with Bethel Bible and Technical school which trained Pastors to serve in the local churches and also girls with dress making skills.

When she realized that the school was not self sustaining, she offered to support the teachers at the school financially and who were also Pastors in the Independent Presbyterian Church in Kitui Kenya.

Jane spoke to me and since she knew that I was working in the Bank in Nairobi Kenya, she asked to be sending the money through my personal bank account for onward transmission to the three teachers and I agreed.

Jane continued to support these Pastors until she went to be with the Lord! She loved education and donated books to both the school and the Pastors and she has truly been a faithful servant of our Lord! and Savior Jesus Christ.

May God remember Jane concerning all she has done and wipe out not her good deeds that she has done for the house of her God and for the offices thereof, AMEN!

May Jane Rest in Peace with our Christ till we meet again, AMEN!
