

Jean Kay Norvell Oliver

July 10, 1938 - October 5, 2023

Jean Kay Norvell Oliver, 85, passed away peacefully on Thursday, October 5, 2023 at Brookdale Charleston Gardens, Charleston.

She was born at Charleston to the late Glenn H. Norvell and Helen Carter Norvell. She was also preceded in death by her brother, John W. Norvell.

Jean was a lifelong resident of Saint Albans, a 1956 Graduate of Saint Albans High School and a former employee of The Bank of St. Albans and One Valley Bank. She was a devout Christian and longtime member of the Washington Street Church of Christ.

She was such a blessing throughout her whole life to everyone. She loved unconditionally and cared for everything natural and spiritual on this earth, purely and unequivocally without giving any thought.

She is survived by her loving husband of over 61 years, Charles Oliver, sister, Anne Shock (Rick), daughters, Amy Jo Taaffe (Dan), Jeri Lynn Samples (Matthew), sister-in-law, Jeannie Norvell, grandchildren Joshua Oliver Samples, Elijah Matthew Samples and Charli Gracen Samples, special extended family, Gary and Christy Morrison, including several other family members.

Memorial service will be held at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, the family is requesting memorial contributions in the form of a card with a memory you may have of her delivered to Bartlett-Nichols Funeral Home, 409 Sixth Ave., St. Albans, WV 25177.

“ Jean Kay was a beloved sister-in-law to me, and a joy to know for all of the 61+ years she was married to my brother Charles. I know I am just one of many who will miss her, but it is comforting to know she's with Jesus and saints who gone on before and were in heaven to welcome her to her new home. She will be in our hearts and memories forever.

“ So sorry to hear this. Jean has been in my life since my grandmother was able to carry me to church. I got to know her better when she joined Curves and we had an immediate connection and fondness for each other. Sad that she is gone, but I am certain we will meet again in heaven. My thoughts and prayers for her family.
