“ I met Jeff when I bought a home 2 doors down from him, he was an awesome neighbor and when I worked out of town he would visit my beloved cat Garfield on the day's I was out of town, his dog Barney liked playing with him, our friendship lasted many year's after we both left. My heart is breaking for his family, he truly was a kind hearted person. I will miss our talks, find Barney and Garf and give them a big hug. RIP old friend.

“ I really hate to hear this. He sent a wonderful card to my Mom when my brother, Rick Samples, passed away. He wrote a lot in it and it really touched Mom and she talked about it a lot. He was always very nice to me, and I remember that he and a young lady that he was dating back in 1995 were at my husband and my second wedding anniversary party at our house at the time. I'm so sorry to hear this Eddie.

“ Rip Cuz I know there's going to be lots of wonderful Dogs in heaven and hopefully more Green Bay packers fans. I regret we didn't get to see each other more often since getting older but I always will remember your smile and easy going personality. Prayers for God's strength and peace for your immediate family 🙏

“ Jeff was such a kind & gentle man. I visited his home with my wife, Richa— Jeff's cousin. I always admired his neatly decorated Packers Man-Cave! Richa always spoke of how much more than a cousin he was to her, being the same age & being so close as small children. You're with our Lord & Savior now, Jeff, but we'll miss you, my friend. ❤️🙏

I remember marching in Charleston with Jeff as he liked Trump, that was such a fun day. Comfort to his family, he's gone much too soon but God only takes the very best.
