“ I am smiling through the tears at the memories of my Aunt JoAnn, especially the sound of her laughter that could light up a room and make everyone's day a little brighter.

“ Aunt Jo was a character, always so much fun to be around. Our first family vacations were always to see them. We would drive all night just to get there so we would have as much time together as possible. She made the visits very memorable with her loving and special personality. Never a boring moment while visiting with Aunt Joe. She was honest, loving, and a very giving person. She was never afraid to share her opinion and I just loved being around her. She left a mark on all who knew her. She will be missed, but not forgotten.
