“ I like to picture Aunt Jo reunited with her parents and sister. The love in their hearts for each other was enormous. I will miss not having her here anymore, but glad her suffering is over. I am lucky to have had such a special Aunt.

“ Jo Ellen was a good sister-in-law as well as a good friend. I never heard her utter an unkind word about anyone. I consider myself very lucky to have had the good fortune of knowing and loving her. She was definitely devoted to her children and grandchildren as evidenced by her name "Granny Jo." Although we will all miss her, we know she is with God and at peace now. She will be forever in our hearts.
